32 struck-off parcels, the tax resale list, Longview and Kilgore

Gregg County struck these 32 properties off to the taxing units for unpaid tax. They are on the resale list right now, and a struck-off parcel sells for the judgment plus costs, not an opening bid. The oldest row on this sheet was struck off in 08/21/03.

Texas resale is a tax deed, no warranty, and the former owner keeps a two year right to redeem under Tax Code 34.21. That is why the list is an investor list and not a retail one: the buyer is paid for carrying the redemption risk, and the price reflects it. Every row here is a title you can hold, or a parcel you can clean up and flip once the two year clock runs.

Reading this list

1. Struck-off date is the clock. The older the date, the longer the taxes have run and usually the cheaper the settlement. The rows at the back of this sheet have been struck off since 08/21.
2. The price is the judgment plus costs. It is not printed on the county sheet. The taxing attorney quotes it per account: Kim Regalado, Linebarger Goggan Blair and Sampson, 903-758-6181 ext 4219, 217 N Center Street, Longview TX 75601.
3. Buy at the resale window, not at auction. A struck-off property needs no bidder number and no deposit to look. Deed issues after payment and recording.
